- Take a couple notes during the sermon to help you remember the key points. Use the back of this form if you need more room. If there is a sermon outline in the bulletin, attach it to this sheet.

- Use your notes to help you answer the following questions:
  1. What Bible text was the sermon based on?

2. Summarize the Bible text in your own words.

Turn over

3. What is the most important point in the sermon that you will remember this next week?

4. What one way did the sermon help you reflect on your life as a Christian?

5. List any part of the sermon that you didn't understand or still have questions about, or something you would like to study further.

Pick one of the songs that were sung in the service today.

1. What was the title?

2. Explain the main points of the song? (1-2)

3. Why did you pick this song? What was it about this song that stuck out for you?

Look at the prayer list for this week, pick out at least one entry and pray for the person/situation this week.
